CONTENTS

Topic of the Issue:
«THEORETICAL AND HISTORICAL ISSUES OF INTERNATIONAL LAW»

I. General Theory of International Law

TIUNOV O. (Russian Federation) Legal Standards: Method of Regulating International and Municipal Relations 4

KOVLER A. (Russian Federation) The Individual as a Subject of International Law (Discussion Revisited) 19

BILOTSKYI S. International Legal Problems of Foreign Military Presence 42

BUTKEVYCH V. Diamond of the Urals in the Crown of International Legal Science (Contribution of Professor H. V. Ihnatenko to the Development of Modern Science of International Law) 51

II. Formation and Development of the Contemporary Ukrainian Science of International Law

ZADOROZHNII O. History of the Chair of International Law, Institute of International Relations, Taras Shevchenko National University of Kyiv 78

KRESIN O., SAVCHUK K. International Law at V. M. Koretsky Institute of State and Law, National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine 93

BUROMENSKYI M., SENATOROVA O., TARASOV O. Kharkiv School of International Law 100

REPETSKYI V., HUTNYK V. International Law at the Ivan Franko National University of Lviv 117

PASHKOVSKYI M., KOROTKYI T. Odessa School of International Law 121

III. From the History of International Legal Thought

BUTLER W. (USA) Volodymyr Hrabar, Peter Lombard, John Mair, and the History of International Law 144

BUTKEVYCH O. History of International Legal Doctrine in the Intellectual Legacy of Volodymyr Hrabar 153

International Justice and Ukraine

TYMCHENKO L., KONONENKO V. The Delimitation of Ukrainian Maritime Boundaries 184

Decision of International Court of Justice in the Case of Maritime Delimitation in the Black Sea (Romania v. Ukraine) 201

Chronicle of International Legal Events

Press Release of The Intrnational Court of Justice Regarding The Election of a New President 259

Biography of Peter Tomka, President of International Court of Justice 261

For the attention of the readers of the «Law of Ukraine» journal!

The topic of the upcoming issue is:

«Legal Regulation of European Economic and Humanitarian Integration».